JOKING ON PACTS. MR. PRINTER, I wish to say A word or two on joking: To joke on Truth in any way Looks somehow quite provoking.

For instance, if I'm fond of snuff, Or love the taste of candy; Or take a little of the stuff That Temp'rance folks call brandy -

Must ev'ry chap who passes by me Sneeze and smack his lips? Or, merely to provoke or try mc, Stagger and show his TRIPS?

Again, if I just sit up late With company good as any; Or, if at Loo, by cruel fate, I lose my last half-penny;

Must ev'ry one that loses sleep Pass by my house a yawning? And, just to make my poor wife weep, Ask, "any CHANGE this morning?"

If I should go to town, at court, And a little RUM should swallow; Or, merely for a little sport, Should spend my last half dollar;

Must ev'ry ill-bred fellow drink A quart of pure, cold water, Right in my face, and drink and blink. And dun me for a quarter?

Now, if I for a few goods owe, Or have not paid my tax, And tailor's bills both live and grow Which are most solemn facts;

Must merchants joke me with a pluck! Must sheriffs turn the screws? Must tailors add to my ill-luck By calling for their dues!

No, no, my friend this way of joking About the truth in fun, Is, to my feelings, to prove ing, And misunderstood by none.

Now, Mr. Printer, please to print This piece for me, and take the hint: 1'll pay you just as sure as snot. Unless you Joke me, then I'll Nor.

I cannot bear to read the "News." And find it mixed with DUNS for DUES! Your friend-Simon Slicker. A lover of good old L--q--r.

LOUISVILLE RIOTS!

The Foreigners are Responsible!

The Louisville Journal publishes several columns of the affi lavits of numerous persons in regard to the origin of the riots in that city. We should like to making a few extracts:

William Sowders, being sworn, states: About 5 o'clock on Monday afternoon, of Graff & Weyd's, at the corner of Tenth and Main; there were three or four small boys, from 10 to 12 years old, sitting upon the curb, about 15 feet from us, on Tenth street. While sitting thus, three Irishmen came from the north side of Main, between Tenth and Eleventh, and, passing us went about half way between Main and Market, on Tenth, when they turned and coming back, one of the hoys made some remark, and the Irishmen immediately drew out revolvers and commenced firing upon the crowd, while we were still quietly sitting on the curb. Ned Forcest was got by the celebrated northern trot-Ned Forrest was got by the celebrated northern trotting horse Young Bashaw, and was sired by the Arabian Grand Bashaw, who was imported from Tripoli by Capt. Joseph C. Morgan, who resided there several years, and selected him with great care from the best stock of horses in that country. His dam was sired by the great race horse First Consul; his grand dam by old Messenger; his great grand dam by imported Rockingham. Ned Forrest's dam was by the favorite trotting horse Saltpetra, and ot to fa full blood Morgan mare.

Thus it will be seen that while the stock upon the sire's side is of the pure, undegenerated Arabian, that of the dam is the very bes. American, which is presumed to be sufficient recommendation. So bring on your mares and get colts that will pay for raising.

STEAM HO. Farmers' Attention:

THE undersigned has put his MILL in first-rate trim for making a first-rate article of FLOUR, and a large turn-out, and is determined to spare no pains or expense to accommodate his patrons; and piedges him self that from a good article of Wheat the Flour he will make shall be inferior to nonemade in the State. Should any one feel dissatisfied with the quantity, he has a large Flour-chest with a big scoop shovel in it, which can be used until you say enough.

Flour-chest with a oig score used until you say enough.

FARMERS will please send trusty servants with their grain to Mill; he could name several instances where he has made extraordinary yields of Flour, and unfortunately, in taking it home, it grew beautifully less.

From A Woodward, M. D., of Penn University Philadelphia.—it gives me pleasure to add my testimony to the professional ability of the Author of the "Medical Manual." Numerous cases of Disease of the Genitial Organs, some of them of long standing, have come under my notice, in which his skill has een manifest in restoring to perfect health, in some cases where the patient has been considered beyond medical aid. In the treatment of Seminal weaknesses, or eisarrangement of the functions produced by self-abuse or E-cess of venery, I do not know his superior in the profession. I have been acquainted with the Author some thirty years, and deem it no more than justice to him as well as kindness to the unfortunate victim of early indiscretion, to reccommend him as one in whose professional skill and integrity they may afely confi te themselves. botanes, and may be attached to steam, water, noise, of hand power.

Also, all sizes of French Burr Mill Stones, manufactured on the same principle.

Jos. H. Berrows, of Cincinnati, is the Inventor, for which he obtained Letters Patent in 1842. For all infringements the purchaser will be held responsible for the fringements the purchaser will be held responsible for the right of using.

These mills do not require a milwright to set them up; and all that is necessary to put them in operation is, to attach a band to the pully on the spindle, with a drum sufficiently iarge to run the 24 inch mill 240 revolutions per minnte, attached to gin, steam, or water power. By the steady application of two-horse power the mill will grind six to eight bushels per hour. These mills are warranted to be, in every respect, as recommended.

Referto Thos. Patterson, Esq., ef Highland county, O.; Jesse Beal, of Clinicnati, and a number of others.

Place your Mill about 12 feet from the Driving Pully, in a level position, make the belt of leather six to eight inches wide. Give the stone 240 revolutions in a minute, with the sun. Keep the neck and step of the spindle well oited. Place the star on the back of the runner stone, the same way as the cross on the driver; that is the way they are trimmed to tun.

We also manufacture Steam Boiler Engines of all descriptions, for Grist and Saw Mill. Particular attention paid to Saw Mill Engines. We have Steam Engines and Boilers always on hand and in progress, so that we can fill an order on saout notice at any time.
